COVID-19 Information

The Asian Languages and Literature Main Office and Advising Office are currently closed. All Asian Languages and Literature staff are working remotely, with occasional on-site work for essential employees. Mail is still being received through campus mailing services, and is distributed to mail boxes once or twice a week.

For all inquiries about keys, access to Gowen Hall, or urgent matters, please email the Asian Languages and Literature Staff.

Please see Asian Languages and Literature COVID-19 Prevention Plan. This document will be updated weekly, or as needed, to stay current with the University of Washington Safe Start guidelines. For general information on the Asian Languages and Literature health and safety guidelines, see our Asian L&L Health and Safety Plan.

For guidance from the Provosts Office, see their “Preparing for autumn quarter” message.

Anyone diagnosed with COVID-19 should notify EH&S Employee Health Center immediately at emphlth@uw.edu or 206-685-1026.

Requirements for coming to campus:

All UW employees who visit a UW campus must complete a Working On-Site Attestation on the Workday website before EACH visit.

Face masks are required on campus. For information about face covering requirements visit: https://www.ehs.washington.edu/face-covering-requirements

All UW personnel must complete a (one-time) 30 minute training session before returning to campus to teach or work full-time - Back to the Workplace COVID-19 Safety Training Course. Once you have completed the training course, please forward your email confirmation or certificate to Youngie Yoon (haeyoung@uw.edu).
