

NEW APPLICANTS:

NON-Native English-Speaking TA Applicant Checklist

Name: _____

Program: _____

Email: _____

REQUIRED

- TA Application (Two-Page)
- Cover Letter (One-Page)
- Most Recent Unofficial Transcript
- English Language Proficiency Requirement met (See Graduate School Memo 15).
 - Spoken English test scores. Scores over two years old (from the test date) are no longer valid.
 - Qualifying Scores: 26 on the speaking portion of the TOEFL iBT or 65 on the Versant English Test
 - Test/Score/Date of Test: _____
- OR
- Received a BA from an English-speaking university
 - School / Date of Graduation: _____
- Applicants for Grad Admissions Only*: One Letter of Recommendation. This can be taken from one admissions application letters of recommendation if preferred
Recommender: _____
- Current UW Students Only*: Home Dept. Statement of Support Form AND One Letter of Recommendation

KOREAN APPS ONLY:

- YouTube video recording of student teaching. REQUIRED of applicants for Korean language courses. Set the privacy settings to UNLISTED. URL should be provided on the TA application

CHINESE APPS ONLY:

- Complete Chinese 443: Structure of Chinese. REQUIRED of applicants for Chinese language courses. Which quarter do you intend to take Chinese 443? _____

OPTIONAL

- Records of Past Teaching Experience (if applicable), such as syllabi or class evaluations
- JAPANESE APPS ONLY: ACTFL OPI or JLPT scores. For native English-speaking applicants in Japanese language courses

LINKS

AL&L TA Applications: <https://asian.washington.edu/teaching-assistant-opportunities>

Frequently Asked Questions: <https://asian.washington.edu/frequently-asked-questions-ta-application>

QUESTIONS?

Email the Academic Counselor, Elizabeth Self, at asianapp@uw.edu