

Vietnamese Language Program

Courses

- Elementary Vietnamese: Viet 111, Viet 112, and Viet 113
- meet your language requirement
- Intermediate Vietnamese: Viet 211, Viet 212, and Viet 213
- meet your language requirement, earn VLPA credits
- Advanced Vietnamese: Viet 311, Viet 312, and Viet 313
- meet your language requirement, earn VLPA credits
- Postwar Vietnam in Literature, Media, and Film: Viet 361
- earn 5 VLPA/I&S credits (Summer quarter A term only)

Features

- Learn about Vietnamese language, culture, literature, and history via structured textbooks
- Gain exposure to authentic Vietnamese language usage in diverse regional accents
- Enjoy insightful glimpses of social and cultural life in Vietnam and Vietnamese heritage culture abroad via lively discussions, audio-visual materials, and sharing experiences

Extra Credit Opportunities

Community service for non-profit community projects

- Serve as a Vietnamese interpreter, translator, or tutor
- Volunteer at community events and festivals

Attend academic talks related to Vietnamese Studies

- Enhance your knowledge of Vietnam and its relations with the world
- Network with scholars, politicians, and businesspeople

Watch movies in Vietnamese with English subtitles

- Experience regional dialects and accents
- Enhance your Vietnamese listening skills
- Enjoy some Vietnamese dramas (no kidding!)
- Socialize. Why not? Get away from study stress with drinks and snacks

Questions or comments?

Please contact: Dr. Bich-Ngoc Turner at turnerbn@uw.edu